LayDee Jane biography 2010

Lucie Kralova a.k.a. LayDee Jane was born in the Czech Republic. Ever since she was a child, she had a feel for music. She attended art schools that specialized in dance, singing and piano play. This experience was crucial for the future development of her love for music.

In 1999 she moved to Switzerland, where she performed as a DJ for the very first time on a larger event. There she was introduced to trance, a modern dance music style which captivated her. LayDee Jane was further developing her skills and talent by playing in local clubs and large indoor parties, and fairly soon she became one of the favorite Swiss female djs.

She was praised by the audience and industry professionals for her energetic style. Her innovative sets gave LayDee Jane status of a pioneer in the field of trance music - she is always bringing new trends and different approach into her performances.

Throughout time, LayDee Jane has ascended all the way to the top of the charts. Her sets were a huge success in the whole Europe, Asia and Africa. She bedazzled audience of some large festivals (such as Creamfields and Mácháč in the Czech Republic, Streetparade and Mainstation in Switzerland, or FFWD Dance Parade in Holland) by conjuring up a magical atmosphere. At the same time she regularly performed at Mallorca's clubs (like BCM, Riu Palace and others), and for one year she was a resident of the legendary Monte Cristo Club in France.

At the present time, LayDee Jane holds several residencies. For a eight year she has a popular resident night at the respected Swiss club MAD. She is also resident of a few Czech clubs and her regular nights are very popular in Poland and Turkey.

Her performances have always a unique atmosphere, and the audience accepts them with sheer enthusiasm. LayDee Jane combines different styles of music which resonate with her artistic taste. She fancies progressive house, trance and tech-trance with electro and tech-house influences.

LayDee Jane's name was on the line-ups with many recognized djs, such as Paul Oakenfold, Armin van Buuren, Sasha, Judge Jules, Marco V, Ferry Corsten, Paul van Dyk, Eddie Halliwell, Svenson, Johan Gielen, Randy Katana, Fred Baker and many others.

Many times she has played alongside of Tiesto, including his historic first performance in the Czech Republic.

Beside djing LayDee Jane is also a producer of her own music. She released eight singles, including the trance bomb "Renaissance" (Fraction Records) in cooperation with Fred Baker and successful "Keep On", "Breaking The Spell" (released in CD compilation Club Hits 2008) and "Titan-ic". It is an original track with metallic sound and industrial feel, and it became favored by many world-class.djs.

LayDee Jane also got a chance to mix CD compilations, such as "Sonic 5" (made for the party of the same name in Switzerland), compilation "Trance Escape" (for Radio Couleur 3), or "Eurogroove" which represents Lucia's individual groove sound and compilation Machac 2009 (biggest festival in Czech Republic).

LayDee Jane is extremely grateful to her fans and likes to give back as much possible., in 2010 set up her own radio show in nr.1 Dance music FM radio station in Czech Republic (www.danceradio.cz) called Atmoss Session.

Keep a close eye on LayDee Jane, because her energetic live sets and overwhelming productions can be very addictive...
